

I am completely against lifting the regulations that do not allow companies to become big brother monopolies in the media world. What makes America great is the many voices being able to inform/educate and or entertain us. If 2 or 3 mega-conglomerates end up controlling all media, we are all in trouble. Thank you - A concerned citi